7,000.MILE JOURNEY MRS. MARY MEYERS FOR EIVE-YEAR-OLD

Tiny Girl All Alone on Way She Left Her Home Last Monfrom Poland to North Dakota.

TAG GIVES DIRECTIONS

Starts To-Day from Ellis Island to Join Parents on Their Western Farm.

Teave Ellis Island alone to-day to complete the 7,000-mile journey from Warsaw, Russian Poland, to Bismarck, N. Dak, She is the smallest and youngest immigrant ever making such a long trip.

Freda's father and mother departed Freda's father and mother departed from Warsaw two years ago and started a farm in North Dakota. They left the child with her grandmother in Poland.

The girl has a red tag on her left marm, giving directions in Polish, German and English as to her destination. Attached to this is a little leather pocket containing pursers' and train conductors' receipts for her passage tickets.

Freda came on the Moltke, of the Hamburg-American Line, and a steward institution in the city but without success.

Hamburg-American Line, and a steward saw that she was properly placed in the care of Miss Fitzgerald, a matron at Ellis Island. The child is too young to dress herself, and this task was performed for her each day on the Moltke by the stewardess.

A passenger agent for the Ontario and Western, on which road Freda will begin her journey to the Far West, said that instructions would be passed from conductor to conductor and from road to road, which would be certain to give the child traveller every comfort and Somplete safety.

Harry Balfe, caterer at Ellis Island, prepared for the tiny traveller a huge basket of lunch which should last her until she reached her parents' home.
